

One Man and His Campervan

An escapist adventure on four wheels – celebrating the freedom of campervan living

Over one glorious summer, vintage campervan lover and passionate foodie Martin Dorey journeys around Britain on the ultimate escapist adventure – celebrating the freedom of campervan living.

In each of the self contained journeys Martin travels to very different regions in Britain; Devon, the New Forest, Norfolk, Yorkshire, Northumberland, Angus, the Trossachs, the Lakes and Pembrokeshire. We will see Martin immerse himself in the idyllic places and amazing landscapes that campervan living allows him to reach.

As Martin attempts to create the freshest campervan cuisine, he tries his hand at a variety of endeavours – from dingy fishing for trout to picking samphire in muddy salt marshes; foraging for mushrooms and herding Rhea in the quest for a giant egg.

He will unearth the freshest seasonal food from the region, befriending the local growers, fishermen, farmers and fellow holiday makers; before serving up great local produce straight from his campervan kitchen for these new found friends.

In each episode Martin's feast will unfold wherever Martin camps up, in some truly stunning settings: on Britain's beaches, in woodlands, on cliff tops and around intimate campfires.

Produced by Plum Pictures for BBC Two

10 x 30 minutes

Filmed in HD

