

THE CATFISH NEXT DOOR

FROM BEAUTY QUEEN TO ONLINE INVESTIGATOR - THE WOMAN WHO UNMASKED THE UK'S MOST PROLIFIC FEMALE CATFISH

THE CATFISH NEXT DOOR

A gripping three-part true crime series that unravels a shocking web of lies and deception spanning more than fifteen years revealing one of Britain's most prolific cyber stalkers.

What begins with flirtatious online exchanges spirals into a chilling campaign of manipulation, stalking, and betrayal—culminating in the extraordinary unmasking of Adele Rennie, a trusted NHS nurse hiding one of Scotland's darkest secrets.

In Kilmarnock, former beauty queen Abbie Draper thought she'd found romance with a charming doctor. But when the story didn't add up, her search uncovered countless other women with the same experiences—late-night calls, threatening behaviour, disturbing gifts. The women join forces in a gripping search for the truth to find behind it all was Adele Rennie, a NHS nurse - one of the UK's most audacious catfishing plots.

With unprecedented access, testimony, reconstructions and chilling detail show how she manipulated victims both online and in real life—exposing the staggering scale of her deception. The investigation becomes a battle for justice as Adele continues to lie, manipulate and lash out. Viewers witness first-hand the disturbing and overwhelming depths of stalking – both in the digital world and real-life situations.

The Catfish Next Door takes viewers inside a case that shocked the UK and left one haunting question hanging in the air:
why did Adele Rennie, a seemingly caring nurse, do it?

3 x 60

Produced by STV Studios, Factual for BBC Scotland, BBC THREE & BBC IPlayer

