

Room 101

Celebrities compete to consign their pet hates to oblivion

Room 101

People are at their most articulate and passionate when slagging things off!

This new version of Room 101, sees three celebrities competing to banish their top peeve, annoyance, or worst nightmare to the depths of Room 101 forever.

Each round is themed by topic, such as "People", "Modern Life", "TV Programme", or "Weddings". The guest's aim is to win each round by putting forward the best argument to convince the host of the true awfulness of their pet hate. If successful, the host opens the doors of Room 101 and the despised object is removed from the world forever.

The show culminates with the most successful guest (whoever gets the most items put into Room 101) being allowed to put a bonus item into Room 101 completely unchallenged.

"celebrating the joy of a good old rant"

The Daily Telegraph

"Watch this"

The Guardian

"plenty of laughs to accompany the tirades"

TV Times

Produced by Hat Trick Productions for BBC One

