RELATIONSHIP AT A CROSSROADS

STUCK

A 15-minute darkly comic and sometimes surreal sitcom about the relationship of Dan (Dylan Moran) and Carla (Morgana Robinson). They're at a cross-roads. Dan has recently been made redundant, while Carla is wondering whether this is all she can expect from life. Add their age gap to the mix, and the re-emergence onto the scene of Carla's ex-girlfriend Maya, and it's no wonder that they're feeling stuck.

5 x 15 mins for BBC Two

"Dreamy casting that doesn't disappoint."

iNewspaper - Pick Of The Day

"Moran's way with words and a seam of surrealism give Stuck a distinctive flavour."

Daily Mail - Pick of the Day

"In a long term relationship? You'll never feel so seen... Vintage Moran."

★★★★★ The Guardian

"Moran's command of language continues to bewitch. Superb."

The Times - Top Pick

"Exactly as you'd hope. Darkly surreal and often laugh out loud funny."

Total TV Guide - Best Comedy

"Quirky, observational humour at its best."
